

POLICY ON RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

1. REGULATORY FRAMEWORK:

Candour Techtex Limited (Formerly Known as Chandni Textiles Engineering Industries Limited) (“the Company”) recognises that Related Party Transactions (as defined below) may present potential or actual conflict of interest and may pose questions whether such transactions are in the best interests of the Company and its members or not. This policy regarding the review and approval of Related Party Transactions has been formulated in compliance with SEBI (Listing Obligation and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 (“the Listing Regulations”) meant to lay down principles that will guide the transactions among related parties. The policy further sets forth the procedures for dealing with the Related Party Transactions including the process for their review, approval and ratification as permitted.

This policy (“the Policy”) has been framed and adopted in accordance with the Listing Regulations and the relevant provisions of Companies Act, 2013 (“the Act”) read with Rules framed thereunder.

Regulation - 23 of Listing Regulations requires the Company to formulate a Policy on Materiality of Related Party Transactions and on dealing with Related Party Transactions including clear threshold limits duly approved by the Board of Directors. In view of the above, the Company has framed this Policy on Related Party Transactions (as defined below).

2. OBJECTIVE OF THIS POLICY

The objective of this Policy is to ensure that the transactions of the Company with its related parties are undertaken on the basis of best practices and in accordance with the provisions of the Regulation 23 of Listing Regulations read with relevant provisions of Act. The Policy also sets out the process for identification of Related Parties, procedure for entering into Related Party Transactions, approval at various levels, disclosures and reporting obligations, criteria and procedure for approving Related Party Transactions, etc.
